

APPALACHIAN ANCESTRY:

A Resource Guide of Surnames of Garrett County, Maryland and Surrounding Areas

Compiled by Carol Corbin and Beverly Railey Robinson
in affiliation with the Youghiogheny Glades
Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution

Introduction

“We are a continuum. Just as we reach back to our ancestors for our fundamental values, so we, as guardians of that legacy, must reach ahead to our children and their children. And we do so with a sense of sacredness in that reaching.”

Paul Tsongas

We are the sum of the people in our chain of ancestry that have come before us. We slowly add to that from the moment we are born until the moment we pass away. Throughout our lives we add love, memories, wisdom, and mistakes and that is what is carried on to the next generation. If we choose to forget those who have lived before, we have lost a part of ourselves. In understanding our ancestors, their lives and ways, we gain a deeper understanding of what and who we are and the miracle it took for each of us to be here today.

Past memories serve the present desires by conveying wisdom and knowledge and without both we are a people doomed to travel in limbo never reaching the true potential of what we were created to become.

In beginning my family research, logic told me to start with my family surnames. I searched for a guide that would give me a list of books that would contain information for my family without the necessity of having to read over volumes of information or traipse through internet sites that yielded no results. I found none. Years and many, many hours later, I was able to put together enough information to gain a fair knowledge of my ancestors and join the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Through my affiliation with the Youghiogheny Glades Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the wonderful women I have had the honor of serving with in the Chapter, I was able to create and offer this Guide to assist you on your journey of family enlightenment. May that journey take you to faraway places and bring you home again with a new understanding of your family heritage and a desire to preserve what your ancestors worked so hard to protect and indwell in you.

May God bless you and our great nation.

Carol Lynne Corbin
